Learning Express – A Great New Test Preparation Resource

The Learning Express Library is an extensive new online test preparation resource provided by your friendly CGTC Library Services department - available on computers both on and off campus. Learning Express Library allows students to take practice exams for Health Career entrance tests, Nursing Assistant and EMS certification, Cosmetology licensure, Police & Corrections Officer exams, GED, ACT, SAT, PPST, TOEFL, and many more. Also available are Math, English, and Reading Skills Improvement modules, Business Writing skills, Job Search skills and much more.

Learning Express Library also includes over 100 electronic books covering academic test prep in Health, Business, Computer, and Public Services occupations; Biology, Chemistry, Math, Reading, and Writing skills; Career Tools and Workplace skills and much more.

All you need to take the practice exams is to set up a one-time Learning Express Library username and password that enables you to track your progress through the learning modules. We hope students, faculty, and staff will take advantage of these valuable online resources. Let us hear from you.
